

Scholarship Information

The Indiana Victim Assistance Training Project is pleased to announce the availability of scholarships to further the knowledge and skills of those who provide direct services to Indiana victims of crime. Scholarships are available to attend national training events which are related to an applicant's responsibilities for serving victims of crime.

Eligibility:

To be eligible for an award, applicants must provide direct services to victims of crime and be employed by a non-profit or government agency. Applicants must have at least one year of experience serving victims of crime. Priority will be given to applicants who work with victims from communities that are historically marginalized and underfunded.

Scholarship Guidelines:

- Scholarship funds are available for reimbursement of expenses up to $2,000.
- Scholarship funds may be awarded to cover some or all of eligible expenses
- Expenses eligible for reimbursement:
 - Event registration fees (excluding late registration fees)
 - Lodging (up to the Federal Government per diem rate)
 - Meals and incidental expenses (up to the Federal Government per diem rate)
 - Ground transportation
 - Travel
- Scholarships are limited to available program funds
- Scholarships are not transferable.
- Scholarship awards do not cover licensing or credentialing fees or other educational expenses.
- Scholarship recipients must submit a post-training report, expense report and required documentation before reimbursement will be provided.

Scholarship awards are available to attend nationally sponsored educational events. To be eligible, the program must:

- Focus primarily on developing skills related to providing direct victim services.
- Be provided or sponsored by a credible organization.

Application Process:

The Indiana Victim Assistance Training Project Steering Committee will review applications and make award decisions. Applicants will receive email notification of their award decision. Applications may be submitted by email or US Mail.
